

1st Sunday Match – November 3rd, 2019

Hello Pardes and Pardetts

The Cavalier Thanksgiving festivities are over and here is a quick run down of the event. As you all know, it was quite cool all day but at least it was sunny. I guess it's better to have turkey instead of duck because the duck grease on everyone's hands keep us from having one clean shooter. We should of supplied handi-wipes I guess. Slick fingers didn't hamper anyone from having fun though. Thanks for everyone's help, your work efforts are equal to no other. Results attached.

P.S.

Gunfight at the Double-C information will be appearing next month.

Thanks Again:

Major B.S. Walker

Hello Cowboys & Cowgirls

The Cavalier Cowboys invites everyone to shoot their Thanksgiving match this Sunday Nov. 3, 2019. No, we are not serving turkey at the cowboy social. Weather so far says sunny but cold. Mid 30's in the morning with highs in the mid 50's so don't forget a coat and also don't forget to set your clocks back one hour because it's the end of daylight savings time. You get an extra hour to sleep in so don't be late. First shot down range at 10:00. Setup for the match will start Saturday at 4:00 if you can help. We have a new target to break in so help us do it right. Stages are attached written by that BS fella.
