

1st Sunday Match – February 2nd, 2020

Hello Cowboys and Cowgirls

We might of had warmer temps today but we also had stronger winds so it felt cold all day. That didn't deter a bunch of cowpokes from slinging some lead down range though. Congrats to Bingo Montana, Kuba Kid & Ripsaw for being our clean shooters and Ripsaw being our top shooter today. Well he did write the match. I would also like to shout out to Rapidan River Rat that shot his first ever Cowboy match today at Cavalier and did a great job under all that pressure. Just to let everyone know that wasn't around, I was there today but did nothing but post scores on two different other scoring systems. Now I know how little I have to do with everyone else's help. Don't forget to sign up for the Gathering on the Mattaponi and while your at it please send in your registrations to the Gunfight at the Double-C.

Enjoy :

Howdy Boys & Girls

Just a reminder that the match Sunday will be over well before the Super Bowl kick off. It will also be a good time to bring your registration to the Gunfight at the Double-C and save yourself a stamp. I will be there as an onlooker. Setup will be Saturday at 3:30 if you can help.

Thanks: MBSW

Hello Everyone

This Sunday is the Super Bowl. The pre game show's starts at 12 noon and kickoff isn't until 6:30. That's wright 6:30. Who would you want to spend all day listening to predictions of who's going to win when you can be a winner yourself. The Cavalier Cowboys are having their 1st Sunday of the month Super Bowl match. Match starts at 10:00 and is always over, torn down and put away before 3:00. We even have time to eat Mexican and then be home in time to watch the game. Sounds like a good plan to me. Stages were written by Mr. Ripsaw.

See you Sunday
