Should have been an Undertaker.

The bounty hunters Striker and Ripsaw had been on the trail of the Peppermill gang for quite some time and should soon catch up. They stop at a creek to water their horses and fill their canteens when a lone gunman opens up on them, it's an ambush. Being the better marksmen, they return fire and kill their attacker. They both walk over to the hombre lying there on his back dead to see who it is and Ripsaw says, hell that's just Sliphammer Spiv's cousin. He's not worth 50 dollars. Striker says, he's not worth the trouble, all the big money is with the rest of the gang, so lets go. Ripsaw replies, maybe we should bury him first. So, Striker walks over to the body and kicks dirt two or three times over the victims face and says, there, now he's buried. With a grin Ripsaw replies, with talent like that, you should have been an Undertaker, lets go.
